

Primrose Weinachten Roberts

My name is Emma, I adopted Giovanna, who i renamed Primrose Weinachten Roberts, in September (Prim for short) (Weinachten means Christmas in German, i love Christmas) (Roberts is obviously my last name) haha.

When i got her she was very horrified of strangers, other dogs, sudden movements, and doors. Now she is the friendliest dog, she loves playing with other dogs, I can finally take her on walks without her freaking out! She is no longer scared of doors, she actually barks now and she is just a huge love bug.

We moved up to Oregon, so my poor Texas dog is getting used to the frigid weather and snow, but she seems to love it here, especially since she has my cousins dog as a friend :). So happy I adopted her, she is the best dog!
