

Spudnick

Just wanted to send an update on Lanzo...who now goes by the name Spudnick! My fiancé and I adopted him in February (the day after we got engaged) when he was 2 months old. Just when we thought our lives were happy and perfect, Spudnick came along and made our lives 10 times more joyful. He is our furry ball of joy and we really could not have made a better decision in adopting him.

Oh and yes he will be making an appearance in our engagement photos!

Lol
