Sparkie the Dog Ready for Adoption!

San Antonio, TX (August 15) Remember Sparkie from a few weeks ago? He was the dog who was found on the 25th of July tied to an electrical box underneath an overpass with no food or water until he was rescued by Tristan, a good Samaritan, and brought to the San Antonio Humane Society. After spending a few short weeks with his foster family, Sparkie was returned to the shelter.

His foster mom said it was hard to say goodbye to Sparkie, but she knew he would make a wonderful companion to a loving family. She said Sparkie is a quick learner who is almost completely potty trained and he loves to spend his days cuddling, which we're sure his new family won't be able to get enough of.

Sparkie will be available for adoption on Friday, August 16th.
