

Cairo

It has been almost 3 months since we adopted Cairo from the San Antonio Humane Society. Although she had only been at the shelter for two days, it was two days too long for this beautiful puppy. My boyfriend and I had been talking about adopting a puppy for weeks but had never made a final decision. On our way home from an out of town trip, I finally convinced him to go “look” at the puppies. At first, we were hesitant to adopt a chow chow mix due to the misconception that they are an aggressive breed. However, as soon as we took her into the room to visit, we both immediately fell in love. We stopped by Petsmart on the way home and filled our cart with toys, blankets, treats and a new house/crate in preparation for her homecoming the next day.

Cairo has more than quadrupled her weight since we’ve had her and has grown into a very active, loving, social dog. On our last visit, the vet told us she would grow to be about 75lbs and is in perfect health. She loves to have her belly rubbed, learn new tricks, go on long walks throughout the neighborhood and is quickly making friends with the other dogs at the Hardberger dog park. We could not have asked for a better dog!! Cairo has brought so much happiness into our home and quickly became the most spoiled family member.

We are so thankful to the San Antonio Humane Society for the services they provide to the San Antonio area as well as the animal community. Without them, we would not have had the opportunity to welcome such an amazing companion into our family.
