

Hieronimus – “Hiero”

Hi Humane Society,

We adopted "Beethoven" a couple of months ago and he has become such a loved member of our family. We renamed him Hieronimus but call him Hiero for short. Hiero was named after an old famous Flemish painter that is known for his amazing paintings but is a mystery otherwise, scholars would die to know anything about his life, therefore we thought it appropriate to name Hiero after him since we know nothing about his former life. We wonder if he was abandoned by a previous owner or if he was born and raised on the streets...who knows, all we know is that he's a great dog and we love him dearly. He's got a cushy home with plenty of food, water, vet checks and love now and forever.

Hiero and I walk at least two miles a day together and it's been great! I love that I always get some exercise in everyday no matter what, it's good for me and great for Hiero. He loves iced water when we get home, he's got it made :)

I'm sending a great picture of my son Rex with Hiero. Rex is 18 months old and they get along beautifully, Hiero is patient and gentle with him and I'm so glad Rex gets to grow up with a great dog just like I did.

Thank you for providing us with opportunity to adopt a wonderful pet!

Lisa

P.S. Hieronymus Bosch is the full name of the artist, really awesome paintings too.
