

Winston

Hello. My name is Winston and I'm cutest pup around. :) I was adopted during Thanksgiving week 2010 from The Humane Society in San Antonio. The staff told my mom that I was about a year and a half but they weren't 100 % sure. The lovely people at the SPCA picked me up in South San Antonio near Nogalitos. They told my mom that they knew nothing about my history except that I hadn't been neutered. My mom says it all started when she went to go see a movie at the Bijou one afternoon. Afterwards, she decided to stop at the SPCA on the way home. That was when we laid eyes on each other. The staff told my mom that they were calling me Yule. We spent the afternoon playing but she decided it would be a good idea to bring her other dog Kingston, for an introduction the next day. Unfortunately, I was being snipped and the staff said I probably wouldn't be in much of a playing mood. I proved them wrong! Not wanting to miss a chance at a forever home and a new brother, I played my little heart out, even got in trouble a few times by the staff for exerting too much after surgery. That's when my mom decided that she couldn't live without me and I her. We began the paperwork and shortly after I was on my way home! I wasn't supposed to play much the first few days because of my surgery. But, I just couldn't help myself! A new home, a new brother and lots of treats; I was one lucky little guy! I've been at my new home for about 3 months and I'm loving every second of it. My mom spoils me rotten (she probably doesn't want me to say that, lol) with dog treats and play time at the dog park with my new brother, Kingston. I had my first trip to the groomer shortly after being adopted and I just loved it. The groomer said I was one of her best clients. I love being pampered! I just love running around and playing with all of my new toys. I make friends everywhere I go and love attention from adults, kids and even other dogs. My mom decided to change my name to Winston to fit with my new brother, Kingston. I am so lucky to have found a forever home with my new mom and brother, Kingston. I can't wait to spend many more years eating treats, playing with toys and cuddling up with my new family!

Sincerely,
Winston Tuesday Solomon
