

Delilah

Right before Thanksgiving I adopted the sweetest terrier mix, Delilah. She caught my eye when I walked in but I was looking for a bigger dog so I passed her by. Well, when I left I stopped at her cage and those big brown eyes just would not let me leave without stopping for an introduction. I took her for a walk and had a great time. When we put her back in the cage I told her I would be back tomorrow to see her.

Well, Monday evening when she saw me she sat pretty and gave me an excited bark. We went for another walk straight to the adoption desk. Since she has been at my place she has been the perfect dog. Evidently, her previous owner trained her well. She has made no messes in the house, only chews on what I let her chew on, and she is always right at my side but never underfoot. She is a doll. Even though she is heartworm positive, she is getting her medications and hopefully all will work out well. She definitely seems to be happy, just look at the pictures. Thank you for introducing me to such a great friend.
