

Wallace

Hello!

My name is Wallace Angel Lopez, and I was recently adopted by Cassie Delgado and Marvin Lopez in September. Marvin wanted to surprise Cassie on their one year anniversary with a kitten that she had been talking and gabbing about for the past few months. I was the very first cat they looked at, and I was very shy and quiet when we were in the play room. I was afraid they wouldn't like me, because I was really scrawny and had a crooked tail. But Marvin and Cassie saw something in me, and I was adopted a few hours later. That turned out to be the best day of my new life!

Since being adopted, everything has changed for the better! Cassie and Marvin hooked me up with the coolest toys and accessories! Even though, I refuse to wear the "cute", blue, polka dot collar they got me. I'm too cool for that. My favorite thing to do is play with my toy snake that Cassie got me. She throws it up in the air, and I try to jump up and catch it. She says that I should be in high jump for how well I do. I also like to lay on Marvin's shoulders while he plays his video games and messes around on his computer. It's our boy bonding time. I always wake up earlier than Marvin and Cassie in the mornings, so I jump out of bed and watch all of the birds on the balcony. They put up a bird house outside, so it's kinda like my morning TV and news. I know exactly the time that Marvin and Cassie get home from work, and I sit right by the door and I greet them with a big "mmmeeeooooowww!" to welcome them. They say it's one of the best parts of their day.

I'm no longer skinny and scrawny, since Marvin and Cassie feed me very well. They even call me "Chubby Wally" sometimes, which I don't mind. I know I'm very lucky with all of the treats and being brushed every night and getting to sleep right in the middle of Marvin and Cassie at night. They say they are going to buy me my own bed, but I'm trying to convince them out of it. I'm not shy anymore either. They have family and friends over all the time, and I love to sit right in the middle of the living room with my toy snake watching everyone.

They named me Wallace after one of their favorite movies, "Scott Pilgrim vs. The World". They call me Wally for short or "WALLACE ANGEL LOPEZ!!!" when I jump on the kitchen counter when Cassie is cooking. I overhear them talking, and they say that adopting me is one of the best decisions they've ever made. They say that I add so much laughter to their lives, and they can't wait to come home from work every day and hear that "mmmeeeooooowww!!!"

-Wallace

