

Foxy

I adopted Foxy in May 2011, she was one of your Louisiana Flood dogs (her name then was Helena). She is such a happy dog, although she still is fearful of big storms. She loves going to the beach, her little brother, and her fluffy bed. She mostly loves being Momma's pretty girl! Without SAHS we would have never crossed paths if life. Thank you!

Kristin

