

Rigby

We adopted "chiquito" from the sahumane society a month ago. His new name is "Rigby" and he is having a blast with our four kids. He has brought nothing but joy to our family. He has the sweetest personality and is quite funny. We look forward to many, many years with him.

The Huron Family