

Sandy

Shortly after adopting Sunny from SNIPSA, I started searching for her playmate. Within 5 minutes of entering the San Antonio Humane Society puppy pavilion, I found Sandy (on the left). She's almost a year older than Sunny but full of energy. Those two can play for hours and keep each other company while I'm at work. Recently, our new pack walked in SNIPSA's Race for the Rescues--as fast as little paws could go. This weekend we'll hit a Paws on the Patio event for the Helotes Humane Society. Sandy is quite the community activist. Hope you find a new member for your pack at the San Antonio Humane Society. -- Mickey
