

Shadow

Hello! We adopted Shadow earlier this month and he's been the perfect addition to our family. I've never been a cat person but my daughter had been begging for one so we gave in and adopted. The last thing I expected was for this little guy to steal my heart away! I'm so glad we decided to adopt him! He's constantly making us laugh and he made sure to show our German Shepherd who was boss the first day he came home!
