

Tex aka Zelda

Hello my name is Dani and my husband and I adopted, who we now call Tex (aka Zelda), in the spring of 2012. I just wanted to thank you guys so much for blessing us with such a perfect friend. She brings so much fun and joy to our lives on a daily basis and could not imagine not having her We now live in Seattle and if Tex could speak, I think she would tell you how happy he is between the ample amounts of amazing hiking, camping, back country skiing, and mountain biking, she's one happy pup Thanks again SA and keep up the good work! I just wanted to share with y'all a good story that has been created due to your passion!

Oh yeah...and she also loves socializing at all the dog friendly breweries :)!
