

Barron

I just wanted to share some pictures of Barron! We adopted him earlier today and we are so glad we took the chance on the shy little Aussie in the corner! He became a huge goofball when we got him out of the car!

He is the biggest sweetheart to our two boys and doesn't mind the cat trying to play with him! He fits in with our family perfectly!!

He was a ball of energy this morning and was eager to get outside on the leash for a morning walk, which is a huge 180 from how he was at the humane society! (I had to carry him to the car because he didn't want to walk)

Extra treat is on the way!!
