

Buster

I adopted Buster, a cocker spaniel, on November 20, 2013. Since that moment I first saw his picture on your Facebook page, it was love!

Buster has brought so much happiness into my life. I am disabled and endure a lot of pain. But, Buster makes me forget about my pain. He is so lovable and a Godsend.

Thank you so much SAHS for bringing an angel baby dog into my life!

Attached is a picture of my sweet baby dog Buster!

Sincerely,
