

Buster aka Robin Hood

Hey guys!!!! Do y'all remember "Robin Hood aka Ryder " he's the dog on the left in both pictures. He is such a happy boy and loves his older brother Bentley. He misses y'all at the shelter and misses Jennifer and running with the vet just dropping a quick note to say thank you!!!

It's funny because when we got him everyone said that he was an outdoor dog and that we might have some problems since we don't have a backyard... Now, all he wants to do is cuddle and loves being indoors. He is the BIGGEST SWEETHEART!!!! He knows how to "sit" and "Shake paws" and "lay down" he is an amazing dog. I don't know how he stayed at the shelter for 6 whole months!!!! My husband Chris and I are thinking of adopting a kitten. So we might be in there again soon. haha.
