

Daisy Mae

We brought Daisy Mae Duke Buchanan Schwartz home a couple of weeks ago and what a great girl she has turned out to be! She has plenty of energy but is equally happy to just curl up and be a couch potato. She fits in beautifully and is just such a wonderful, happy addition to our lives. She gets along with all the cats – in fact, she and Booger the Cat like to curl up on their cushion at my feet when I work from home. Awesome pup!!!!
