

Jamie

We adopted this precious little girl just over a week ago and about six months after losing our 14 year old male to cancer. Formerly Palomino, now Jamie (after a character in one of our favorite movies) she is confident, loving and really enjoys naps on any available lap. Her new 16 year old sister is equally happy to have her. Our family is now complete. Thanks for all you did so we could adopt her.

Erin

