

Milo

We picked up Milo on a nice beautiful day. We went home and he loved it. We thought that he would be scared but he was so excited to be in a new place. We found out that he liked bread when he started to eat my sandwich. It was adorable. To this day all things are perfect with him.

Thank you San Antonio Humane Society!
James

