

Roo

Hi! I wanted to share some pics of Roo we adopted him back in June 2011 from y'all. We kept the name he had because it just fit him. We are very blessed with him and he is the king if the house. He loves my daughter Ashley so much. Thank you for rescuing and saving lives of these wonderful pets. Wanted to post in your FB wall but I didn't know how...feel free to share in your FB page. God bless all and Happy New Year!!!

Upper left pic is the first day we brought him home from The Humane Society and most recent is the one with his blue sweater my daughter bought him.
