

Sheldon

Hey guys, I just wanted to thank you for the ultra super amazing Gamon (renamed Sheldon) that I adopted from you on Mother's day. No words could adequately describe how much I love this little guy. He is perfect, and I'm obsessed with him. Also, I noticed that he didn't make it onto your facebook page, and I wanted to post one to show off and brag about how amazing he is, and make everybody else super jealous that they didn't adopt him. But apparently you don't let people post on your wall. So I've attached some pictures of him being super cute. Please post these pictures, and let everybody know how amazing he is, but that they can't have him. Because he's mine. He loves playing fetch, tug of war. He enjoys wrestling with me. He is a super fast runner. He loves running with and chasing other dogs. He loves car rides, and he can jump surprisingly well for only having three legs. And he is a little cuddle monster.

That is all.

P.S. I don't remember the name of the girl that helped us pick him out, but i'm coming back to give her a big hug. Warn her"

Alex
