

Zuko

I adopted this little cutie last April. Adoptive name Simon, now named Zuko.

Sadly when i adopted him his whiskers had been cut down almost to the roots and he had a cut on his nose. However, now he's a healthy kitty and is easily the best decision I've ever made. I'm so happy that I've adopted him. His personality is a unique one, and not that of a normal cat. He's extremely playful, friendly and loves to cuddle.. acts more like a dog if you ask me. He gets a lot of love in my apartment, where there are 4 ladies and a dog to love him. Within a short time, I never thought I could be this connected go an animal! Just thought I would share an update on how he's doing.
