

Chloe

Hello!

I want to share the story of my fluffy paw, chloe, who I adopted in 2012.

I adopted Chloe (Daniella) in March of 2012. Chloe changed my life. When I first saw her, she was so timid and quiet, completely opposite now. Chloe is always there for me and knows when I need an extra snuggle. During many tough times in my personal life, Chloe was my comfort. One day, I was walking Chloe and she was hit by a car, the driver was not paying attention and on her phone. I was mortified. Fortunately, she survived but with many scratches and torn-paws. For a month, every day, I took her to the doctor's to switch her bandages so she could get better. Now, one year after the accident, she is happy as ever and I am forever grateful I met her on that one fateful day at San Antonio Humane Society. I can't imagine my life without Chloe. She has brought so much joy not only in my life but everyone who meets her.
