

Mack aka Mushu

Hey! I wanted to give you guys a brief update on "Mushu" we call him "Mack" now! He has been an amazing dog. He is so full of energy all the time and is super playful! He fits in perfectly with our other 2 dogs (Connor and Landon) he seems to really love car rides so far! Here are some pictures of his first few nights with us! Since he liked to play with his food bowl so much we had to get a heavier bowl so he would stop trying to flip it over!!
