

Bandit

Hi all, I'm Bandit, formerly Turbo. Let me tell you how great life has been since I chose my family in June. At first I was a bit shy, but I am definitely over that now! I love my walks, dog park fun, and going to doggy daycare. I can be a cute 90 lb lap dog, and my family even calls me stubborn, but they still love me so much. As if my life couldn't be any better, mom and dad just got me a new sister! She loves to play as much as I do! I don't know how life could get any better, but I have a feeling it will as the years go by??
