

Bella

It's been one year this month that I adopted Bella (FKA Earlena). What joy she has brought me, but more importantly, the joy she brings to others. After completing certified training, Bella is officially a certified working therapy dog. We make visits to hospitals, senior homes, and so many others, providing smiles and encouragement through physical and emotional support, facilitating love and happiness along the way. She now has her purpose!

Debbie