

Boo Arial

Just wanted to send an update on my kitty, Boo Aria! I adopted her from yall when she was 4 months old and she is now 3.5 yrs old. She has a new 9 month old sister whom she loves- a chihuahua/terrier mix. She remains an indoor cat, though she does like to try to venture out onto the back porch on occasion. Boo sleeps, plays and eats a lot and her vet says she is happy and healthy! Thanks again SAHS!
