

Mr. Mickey

Hey guys just wanted to give a quick update on Mr. Mickey we adopted him back in August and we couldn't be more in love with him. At first Daisy was kind of hesitant towards Mickey but finally gave him a chance and are now getting closer and closer everyday. He is indeed a couch potato and the most lovable old man, never letting his heart condition bring him down. Daisy sure loves her big brother now.

Love Jake and Yhaira
