

Rusty

Hi, I heard that I can send you guys an update through Facebook on our adopted dog: It has been almost a year since we adopted Rusty (formally Huckleberry). He is happily living in San Marcos, but likes to come back to San Antonio to visit his family and dog friends. He likes going on runs, receiving back massages, and sometimes even offering political commentary in his (human) voice.

Thank you to the San Antonio Humane Society for allowing us to become best friends with Rusty!

Daniel
