

Tony

Hello! My name is Lindsay and I adopted a dog named Austin (now named Tony) back in Sept while I was in San Antonio for GroomWars. I adopted Austin and flew him back to South Dakota with me. I just want to share with you how much this dog is loved and how well he fits in with our family. We can imagine him not being him our lives he just fits so well. I thought I would share a few pics of our happy guy in his new home in South Dakota. I would love to share our full story.

Where should I send more info?

Lindsay
