

Aileen

Good Afternoon! On this date 4 years ago y'all posted a precious, almost 3 month old pit bull mix named Aileen. I adopted her shortly afterwards and tried to post an updated photo of her on the comment thread from the original post, but am unable to add a photo. Here is a photo of my beach loving fur baby! She spends her days playing with and protecting her little sister Gidget. I hope you're able to post updated photos of her. Thank you all for all of your love and care you provide to all the babies that need more love than they get.
