

Jack

I adopted Jack (aka Kiefer) about two weeks ago and I couldn't be happier. He has some things to learn with long boarders and runners but he is filling his role as an emotional support animal perfectly. He is loving the college life with all the tennis balls and toys he could dream of.

Sincerely,
Chayce