

Zach

Hi, do y'all remember Zach? We adopted him last year in February. He was more than shy and didn't wanna walk at all. Well, he is doing great, though his anxiety hasn't completely disappeared yet, but we are working on it. Oh and btw, he moved back to Germany with us. He is now a "Berliner"

And he loves to cuddle. He is just a great dog.

Best wishes from the Reyes Family.
