

Zena

Thank you for giving Zena a chance for life. Joesand and I (Jessica) have been very blessed and thankful for having Zena as part of our family now and forever. We both know how popular she was, how she touched everyone's hearts and everyone was sad to see her go. We both wanted to share some photos of Zena in her new bed with all her new toys. She is full of joy! Thanks to everyone who didn't give up on her and gave her hope.

Love,

Joesand + Jessica = Zena
