

Lilo

Today our Lilo is 1 yrs old! Lilo, aka the love of our lives was adopted 10 months ago by my fiancé and I. She is our rambunctious child who has the biggest heart for everyone and everything. We can usually find her spread out napping on our bed or zooming across the backyard with her dog “cousins”. We are thankful for her every single day. Today is also her birthday, so to celebrate, we participated in The Big Give to give places like the San Antonio Humane Society the support it needs to put more love in the form of wet noses and cuddles in people’s lives.

Happy Birthday to Lilo and Happy Big Give. <3
