

William

Five years ago today this little boy came into my life! William has been my best friend since the moment he turned his back on me at the shelter. He cuddles against mom's side at night, pins his friend Biscotti down for a bath, rules the house and is way too smart for his own good! I can't thank the San Antonio Humane Society enough for giving me this amazing baby boy!

Ashley