

Bing

Since arriving at her new home 9 days ago Bing has really come out of her shell. She was very nervous when she first arrived home but every day she has become more outgoing and affectionate. She's enjoying walks with her brother Thor (aka Chaplin, another SAHS adoptee) and LOVES sleeping on the bed. Here is a picture of her on day one looking very worried and some more of her happy and "smiling."

Thank you so much for everything you do. Both of these dogs are an absolute JOY.

Best regards,

Emily
