

Lady (aka Jessica)

Lady [originally known as "Jessica"] is a sweet puppy, and we're very happy we adopted her! She likes to sleep a lot, play with her toys, and go on car rides to the country where she gets to play with the other family dogs. They all think she's tough because she ignores them, but she only ignores them cuz she can't SEE them! Sometimes I forget that she's blind because she gets around so well. It only took her a couple of days to get used to her surroundings. She loves going on her daily walks, & gets a puppy treat when she gets back. Everyone in the house gives her plenty of attention and belly rubs. She curls up every night on my red chaise lounge with her blanket, & sleeps like a baby. She's a happy girl in a happy new home with ppl that love her...even though she snores :]
