

Napoleon (aka Sparks) and Ryu

My name is Emily and I adopted an orange cat named Sparks (now Napoleon). Just wanted to let you know how amazing he is! We have a cocker spaniel puppy named Ryu, who is Napoleons best friend now. He fit right in from day 1. His profile said he didn't get along with dogs, but he and Ryu have been playing together since I introduced them. He also settled right in. He knew from day 1 that I was his new mommy. He gets along with everyone and loves giving people attention. My roommate even loves him (and she hates cats!) Thank you so much for giving me the opportunity to add this amazing feline to my family. Happy holidays!

- Emily and Napoleon