

Orie & Sherlock

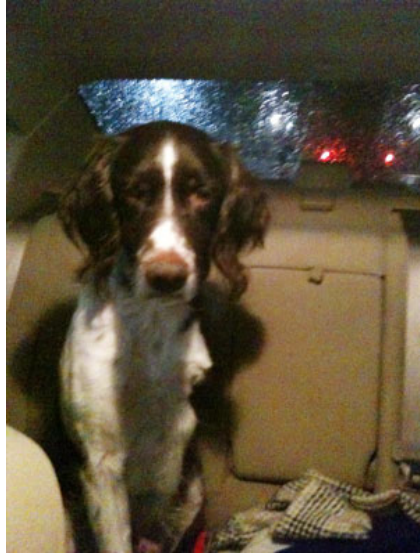

My boyfriend and I would just like to thank you for everything. This past Friday we went to look for a dog to adopt and add to our doggie family. Little did I know, we would be leaving with two! Once we met Zig (whom we re-named Orie), we knew he was a keeper. He was so shy but so cute! Then my boyfriend asked me if I wanted to go through the adult dog kennels... I saw one dog whom I automatically fell for. Sherlock has three legs and we weren't sure what kind of limitations he would have. We were surprised when we walked in the room because Sherlock jumped up on top of both of us! I guess he chose us :)

I was a little nervous taking both home because we already have one dog at home who can be a little dominating at times, but these two came home and everyone became fast friends. Once we arrived home Orie and Sherlock jumped right on the couch and snuggled up together, it was just the cutest thing! I have also been surprised because neither have had any accidents (bathroom) in the house. Orie is a little shy around people but he is warming up more and more everyday.

We just want to thank you for being so nice and answering any and all questions we had. If anyone I know is ever looking to get a dog or cat I would ONLY recommend the San Antonio Humane Society. We couldn't have asked for more perfect additions to the family.

Sincerely,
Mike and Kristin
