

Sadie and Charlie

In June we adopted two dogs, Sadie and Charlie. We couldn't decide which one we wanted more, so instead of picking just one, we took both home with us. Sadie is a four year old Collie and Charlie is a four year old small breed pure-mutt dog. Each has their own personality, very sweet and loyal. They both enjoy going on walks and vigorously eat bones like there is no tomorrow. We picked these dogs because they were gentle and calm mannered around our boys. Charlie and Sadie happily greet us at the door and cry when we leave. We bought two beds for the dogs, but Charlie has chosen to sleep on a pile of blankets and Sadie waits for us to go to sleep and sneaks into the living room to sleep on the couch (she thinks we don't know!). These two dogs have brought so much joy to our house. Traveling with them is a bit harder, seeing how Sadie weighs 76 lbs, but we wouldn't have it any other way.

Thank you for our two new additions.

Sincerely,
The Thompson Family
