

From Rosie: CeeCee

"We were looking to adopt a companion for our dog, Nicky (miniature Schnauzer, 10 yrs. Old) because we had recently had to put our other dog down. Her name was Amy, 17 yrs. Old, was a Bischon Frise. She was very old, sick and very fraile. It was the hardest thing we've ever had to do but it was the humane thing to do. We adopted Cee Cee on January 30th but weren't able to bring her home until Feb. 6th. She was shy the first three days but quickly felt right at home. She gets along very well with Nicky. We have a doggie door and she loves that she's able to go in and out anytime she wants. She loves her new mommy and daddy. She's all about kisses...she's constantly giving us kisses. She keeps us smiling with the cutesy little things she does. She's already taken over the bed at night. Sleeps in between us...all four of us sleep comfortably in our king size bed. She bounces like Tigger, up and down from happiness when we get home. She kisses us until we have to stop her because she can go on forever. If you would like to see more pictures and stories of Cee Cee, go to the KENS 5 web page...Pet Crazy pictures. She has quite a few in there already along with my dog Nicky. We love Cee Cee and I thank the lord I was at the right place at the right time when I walked in the doors of the Humane Society. I saw her and immediately fell in love with her. She's perfect! She's our baby now and part of our small family."
