

From Kelly Given: Charlie

"I just wanted to write and give you an update on a dog that I adopted from you guys back in May [2007]. He's a white wire-haired terrier mix that you guys were calling Happy. He goes by Charlie now, but he's still a very happy little guy! He's very sweet, always greeting people at the door and trying to climb into their laps when they sit down. He gets along great with his "big sister", our cocker-spaniel mix Amy. They play together all day and get into their fair share of trouble when we're not looking! We found out about Charlie's little "talent" the hard way - he can jump high enough to get onto the kitchen table and can vault right over the back of the couch. But he's generally a pretty dog and we love him so much. He makes all of our days a little brighter, and I just wanted to say thank you so much for letting me make him a member of my family."
