

Zuko (a.k.a. Robin Hood)

I am so proud to write and catch you up on my progress since I've left the shelter. I arrived in May of 2009 on your front steps. I was a Red-Nosed Pit Bull, with floppy ears and several weeks old, and was given the name "Robin Hood". On June 6th, my future Mommy came into the shelter. It was love at first lick! She took me to my new home in Cuero, Texas where she renamed me Zuko. I love it when she calls me her Zoo Zoo.

I enjoy playing in water! When I go visit Granny, she lets me play in the small kiddy pool. But pull out a water hose and I forget about the pool. My all time favorite thing to do is bite at the water shooting out of the hose! It cools me off and its loads of fun!! Momma also takes me on long bike rides around the neighborhood. I trot with my head held high with pride! But boy does it tire me out!

Speaking of sleeping, I love to sleep in Mommy's bed, although she sometimes complains that I hog the bed and covers. I have a bed of my own but I tend to throw it around and sleep in it at night. But during the day, my favorite place to sleep is on the back of the huge chair in the living room. I can get into some crazy positions on those pillows!

I recently had a big accomplishment! I graduated from Puppy Training Class. It has been a long 8 week once a week class at Petsmart. I have learned to sit, stay, lie down, crawl (where I'm laying down and I crawl to my treat like a soldier), shake, and leave/take it. Mommy's favorite is when she teases me and puts a treat on my paw and tells me to leave it. It's so hard but I wait until she gives me the okay to take it. Oh and I'm potty trained! I haven't had an accident in over three weeks!! But when I have to go I got to go! When I run to the door and start jumping Momma knows it's time!

But so far I'm 5 month old, 26 pounds, young, handsome, and in healthy condition.

I hope this letter brings you great joy! Thank you all for giving me help, love, and attention when I needed it most! Because without you I wouldn't have the loving home I do today.

With Great Love and Thanks,
Zuko (a.k.a. Robin Hood)
Jessica
