

Hope

We adopted Carrot back in September, in this short time we have fallen in love with her and she is fitting in perfectly.

She is already getting spoiled, and getting used to going potty outside and having toys to play with. She is now named Hope.

-Theresa

