

I just wanted to thank you for our wonderful new furbaby! We picked Brutus (yes we renamed him lol ) up on Thursday and he has adjusted well. He is super playful and loving. Brutus is spoiled by not only us but all the neighborhood families as well. He even had his first play date with a neighboring dog and they got along great. He was the missing puzzle piece to our loving family and I'm glad he's finally in his forever home. Thank you again for placing him with us and blessing us with his love!

Forever grateful,

Yvonne Renee Thomas
