

Hi! I adopted this pup!

We renamed him August (Gus) because "God of War" just didn't fit this sweet and goofy boy. He has a little brother, who taught him how to run, bark, and play- after 2.5 years, Gus is still teaching his pup manners. He has a little sister too- but she was an adult by the time she was adopted. Last August- lol, fitting- his first human baby came around! He is SO gentle with her, and she loves him so, so, so much.

Thought I'd give you all an update. He's the best dog in the world, and I love him so very much. He's in a great home, with lots of pets, table scraps (baby loves to feed him... oops), and all the love in the world.
