

Hello wonderful people,

Not sure if you wanted an update but I just wanted to send this email to let you know how much I LOVE Joy! She is an AMAZING dog! The cats are still not thrilled about her presence, but she is very respectful of their space. She's improved on leash walking (no longer pulls), potties outside, is wonderful with other dogs, and of course so kind to people! I'm so glad that I went to y'all to find her!! Enjoy these photos and Happy New Year.
