

Marz (Clover) has adjusted well. First several days, he was really shy but is coming out of his shell nicely. His favorite Human is my daughter and rightfully so since he is truly hers! :) we cannot thank you enough for such a seamless process. We feel blessed to have found him as he has done wonders for my daughter. They both needed each other and find comfort in one another. Here's some pictures of Marz in his forever home.

-Mary Perez

