

Hello!

It's been 4 whole weeks since I adopted one of a litter of 6. Adam, now Russell for his red color, is an excited, silly boy who is learning to be a pup and one day, a big dog. He's 12 weeks old now and growing by the day! I just wanted to say thank you so much for taking on this little soul so that I could give him a new life full of toys, play, and happy naps! :)
